

The Power of Intentional Leadership: How Your Story Influences Your Ministry

Joan Webb

“If I live and lead intentionally, being true to my own personality, serving from my God-given giftedness, I no longer feel the urge to envy anyone else’s ministry, talents or mission.” The day I jotted these words in my journal, I sighed with relief. Although I rarely voiced envy, I felt secretly disappointed that others had fulfilled their ministry dreams but I had not. Perhaps you identify. In this interactive keynote presentation learn how God wants you to lead as the person He designed you to be—with your specific temperament and gifts—and to live out the good deeds He planned specifically for you to do. (Eph. 2:10)

Yes, I can promote my Ministry!

Shirley Barker

Promoting and marketing your ministry can be fun. You will learn how to arrange publicity for an entire year, find out where you can get inexpensive promotional pieces, see numerous examples, and discuss what others are doing to promote their ministry. You will even be able to take a couple of examples with you. This session will help you organize your ministry’s publicity and make it easy to say “Yes” to promotions.

How to Begin a Mentoring Ministry: Understanding & Applying Titus 2 Principles

Chris Evans

God desires that His Body, the Church, remain healthy and growing. One of the ways that He instructs us specifically as women is in Titus 2:3-5. This passage provides for a great model of the role of women in the church. This workshop will set a foundation for you to begin a mentoring ministry in your church as well as give you practical helps on how to get started

Special Events or Will $5 be Enough?

Daisy Hepburn

Why have Special Events? Who is Your Target Audience? Get with the Program! Timing is Everything! Charm, content and cooperation...What’s so special about

Special Events? Are they worth the time and effort? What will attract the women? How do you cover all the details and live to tell about it? This four part 'learn and do it' session will give you a hands-on experience. Join us – for a session that refreshes. Yes!

Studying God's Word Transforms Lives

Deb Douglas

In this breakout, we will get a personal prescription for life changing Bible study and tips on how to lead a small group in studying the Word. We will look at new resources and have time for brainstorming ideas and Q & A. Come and delve into the richness of God's Word!

Recruiting & Building a Leadership Team

Jane Bishop

You, too, can be a recruiter! This workshop will help you learn how to enlist members for a leadership team! But recruiting is the beginning. Discover principles of how to build an effective leadership team once the members have enlisted! This is not a "sit down and listen" workshop! Be prepared to participate in some team building activities!

What is Your Passion?

Women's Ministry 101

Diana Johnson

In this breakout, you as a leader in Women's Ministry will come to a greater understanding of your purpose to guide and encourage women. You will come away equipped with resources that will enable you to meet the needs your women face today. You will learn how to create opportunities to network as well as provide opportunities for building relationships among your women.

HeartCall: Starting an Evangelism Ministry in Your Church

Sharon Beougher

Evangelism 101: Reaching Your Family and Neighbors

HeartCall: We will take a look at God's call to purpose, power, and prayer, and through the HeartCall materials that can be adapted to any size church or group; it provides a lot of flexibility to meet the needs of training women in evangelism and equipping them in a practical way that "they can do it." We will incorporate one of the small group sessions from HeartCall into the workshop and let participants experience the intent of the training as well as have each person read one of the HeartCall tracts to another attendee. Each will leave with a tract in hand and equipped to share it with others.

A Passion for Missions: How do I Get Other Women to “Just Say Yes!”?

Pam Carns

Getting others to share your love for missions can sometimes be challenging, but it is not impossible. This session will cover what hinders women from their involvement in missions and how to overcome those obstacles as well as some scriptural treasures that are often overlooked when thinking about missions. Opportunity will be given to network with one another about potential mission possibilities available in Arizona, as well as some practical hands-on application right in the workshop.

Prayer – The Way of Life

Sheila Jones

Your life, ministry, and church will be void of Life without powerful and passionate prayer. In this session, we will discuss ways to develop a mature prayer life, encourage others to pray, and set the stage to see your church transformed by the power of prayer. The only prerequisite is a desire to Know and Obey our Lord, therefore this class is for you!

GOT HOPE? Steps to Persevere in Your Journey & Lead with Hope

Kathe Wunnenberg

What opportunity or obstacle are you facing in your leadership journey? Whether you're a new or seasoned leader, feeling overwhelmed or fulfilled, this interactive workshop is for you. Come as you are and receive personalized encouragement and practical ideas to help you envision potential, press through anything and lead with Hope. In this session you will receive information on: Steps on “How to start a Women’s Ministry” (small or large church), a sample of a “Spiritual Gifts Profile Test” to place women in their “ministry”, a list of helpful websites, women giving testimonies on their experiences of different types of ministries....and much more!